

Chapter 1

Section 2: Michigan Practices Improvement Steering Committee (PISC) Overview

The Michigan Practices Improvement Steering Committee is responsible for overseeing the work being done in the state to improve practices. The first document below outlines the scope of their responsibilities. The second document is a summary of the efforts to transform our system through implementing Evidence Based Practices.