

SA COMMUNICABLE DISEASE TRAINING
JUNE 6, 2007

NAME: _____

AGENCY: _____

POST TEST

1. A client must disclose HIV status to any direct care staff? T F
2. HEP C is not an issue in the U.P. T F
3. A person living with HIV and there family are protected by the Americans with Disability Act? T F
4. A person can be HIV + for many years and not know it? T F
5. A person living with HIV is considered cured if the HIV viral load is undetectable? T F
6. Drinking alcohol is not considered a risk factor for HIV or HEP because needles aren't shared. T F
7. The goal of risk reduction is to make the person stop doing the risky behavior? T F
8. A person living with HIV must disclose HIV status prior to any sex or needle sharing activity? T F
9. There is no treatment for Hepatitis C? T F
10. Disclosing a person's HIV status is misdemeanor in Michigan? T F
11. A person can have a +TB skin test, and never develop active TB. T F